

Analyst Training Program

Application requirements checklist

- 1. Application form
The attached application form can be filled out digitally via Adobe Acrobat or similar PDF editor, by hand, or electronically via the online submission form. Five (5) copies of confirmation letters are required if mailing physical/hard copies.
- 2. Academic transcripts
Applicants must provide official transcripts of all post-secondary academic work with proof of degree(s) granted. Official paper or eTranscripts must be sent directly from the granting institution for each post-secondary academic institution attended.
- 3. Statement of History
The Statement of History should be in two parts, (a) a summary of your life history and how it relates to Jungian thought and (b) a detailed description of your interest in analytical psychology and your motivation for applying to the OAJA Jungian Analyst Training Program. Statements must be ten pages or less, double-spaced, typed, and printed. Five (5) copies are required if mailing physical/hard copies.
- 4. Letters of recommendation
Three (3) recommendation letters should be written by people who have firsthand knowledge of your qualities and can provide insight into your potential as a student and future analyst. Letters cannot be written by an applicant's current or former Jungian Analyst. Letters must be sent directly from the recommender and received by Nov 15.
- 5. Analysis confirmation letters
Letters confirming a minimum 100 hours of personal analysis, with a minimum of 25 hours completed in the last year, are required from recognized International Association of Analytical Psychology (IAAP) members. Letters can be sent directly from the analyst or included in the applicant's submission package. All letters must include the analyst's contact details and confirmation of IAAP membership. Copies of emails are not acceptable. Letters must be received by November 15. Five copies (5) of confirmation letters are required if mailing physical/hard copies.
- 6. Application fee
The nonrefundable application fee is $300. The fee is payable online, via Interac e-Transfer to bookkeeper@oaja.ca, or by cheque. For payment via e-Transfer or cheque, include a memo stating "ATP Application Fee." For all other questions, contact the Registrar at registrar@oaja.ca.

Applications are accepted from September 1 until November 15 for admission in the program commencing September of the following year.

Send email applications to: application@oaja.ca.

Send all physical/hard copy materials to:

Ontario Association of Jungian Analysts
Office of the Registrar
14 Elm Street
Toronto, ON M5G 1G7
CANADA